

Rhyming Riddles

From brainpuzzles.games

1.

My tail is long, my whiskers neat, I squeak whenever I want a treat. What am I?

3.

I fly all day without any wings, tied to a child by long thin strings. What am I?

5.

I wear a green coat and a red, red heart. Black seeds go flying when I fall apart. What am I?

7.

My arms grow leaves, my skin is bark, birds rent my rooms and sing till dark. What am I?

9.

I fall from clouds but never bruise, I fill your boots and soak your shoes. What am I?

11.

I hum a tune from flower to flower, I make sweet gold hour after hour. What am I?

13.

I've got a trunk but I'm not a tree, the biggest nose you'll ever see. What am I?

15.

When storm clouds burst I bloom out wide, then drip and nap by the door inside. What am I?

2.

I have a face but never frown, my hands go round and round and round. What am I?

4.

In a bright yellow coat I curve like the moon. Peel me and eat me, no fork and no spoon. What am I?

6.

I roar down the road on circles of black, I carry your family there and then back. What am I?

8.

At night I shine, by day I hide, I pull the ocean's rolling tide. What am I?

10.

I'm white and cold, I drift and blow, school gets canceled when I show. What am I?

12.

I ride your shoulders to school each day, I swallow your homework along the way. What am I?

14.

Strike me once and watch me glow, I die whenever the cold winds blow. What am I?

16.

I have a bed but never rest, I run downhill on a winding quest. What am I?

17.

I'm full of keys both black and white. Press me kindly, wrong or right. What am I?

19.

I hang on the wall and copy your face, you blink and I blink in the very same place. What am I?

21.

We travel in twos through wash and through spin, yet one of us vanishes. Where have we been? What are we?

23.

I carry my home wherever I roam, I draw silver ribbons wherever I've gone. What am I?

25.

I start out green, then blush bright red, then get sliced on burgers or salads instead. What am I?

27.

A cold box in the kitchen humming a song, I keep your milk fresh all week long. What am I?

29.

I strut through the grasslands with a golden mane, the so-called king of the wild terrain. What am I?

31.

You climb me up, you climb me down, yet I never move around. What am I?

33.

I'm sticky and sweet from a buzzing crew. Spread me on toast, that's what I'm for, it's true. What am I?

18.

Round as a button, deep as a cup, all the king's horses can't pull me up. What am I?

20.

In a jacket of wood with a soft gray core, I write and I draw, then get sharpened once more. What am I?

22.

I have teeth in a row but I never chew, I tidy your hair when you ask me to. What am I?

24.

Red up above and green down below, I whisper out stop and I shout out go. What am I?

26.

I bounce on big feet through lands far south, I carry my baby in a pouch, not my mouth. What am I?

28.

We're scattered like glitter across the night, we vanish each morning in soft blue light. What are we?

30.

Ten little friends in two snug rows, they march all day inside your clothes. What are they?

32.

I sit on the wall or ride in your hand, I ring and connect you across the land. What am I?

34.

I sit on a lily in my smart green suit, I snap up the flies and croak like a flute. What am I?

35.

A box without hinges, key, or lid, yet golden treasure inside is hid. What am I?

37.

I have many rings but no fingers at all. Count all my circles to learn I stood tall. What am I?

39.

Finish the rhyme: "I'm fluffy and white in the sky so proud, I drift and I change because I'm a ____"

41.

Finish the rhyme: "I squeak in the night on wings of leather, I hang upside down in any ____"

43.

Light as a feather with nothing inside, even the strongest can't hold me long, though they've tried. What am I?

45.

I've got a spine but I'm not a beast, my leaves aren't green in the least. What am I?

47.

A riddle written as a short rhyming poem is sometimes called a poem riddle.

49.

Ø=Ü + &ö

51.

I dip in your cereal at breakfast and noon, I stir up your cocoa and curve like the moon. What am I?

36.

I wave all day at the top of a pole, my colors and stars are part of my soul. What am I?

38.

Finish the rhyme: "I shine in the sky when the day's begun, I'm Earth's own star, they call me the ____"

40.

Finish the rhyme: "I stand on four legs but never walk there, I hold up your dinner beside your chair. I'm a ____"

42.

Finish the rhyme: "I'm cold and sweet upon a cone. Lick me fast or I'll be ____"

44.

Peel back my layers, do it with flair, I'll fill up your eyes with tears to spare. What am I?

46.

I follow you round on the sunniest day, but stand in the shade and I vanish away. What am I?

48.

The words "orange" and "door hinge" rhyme perfectly.

50.

Ø=Ü + Ø=Üi

52.

I lean on the wall though I have no feet, step up my rungs to reach the top seat. What am I?

53.

I munch in the meadow with my head hanging low, I give you the milk that helps you to grow. What am I?

55.

I appear once in a minute, twice in a moment for you, but not in a thousand years. What letter is the clue?

57.

I'm always ahead but I never arrive, forever one day past the now you're alive. What am I?

59.

I'm simple to make and I'm simple to break, and I must be kept for a good friendship's sake. What am I?

61.

I cling to a corner yet travel the earth, I carry your letters for pennies of worth. What am I?

63.

The more that you take, the more you leave behind, the farther you wander, the more you will find. What are they?

65.

I only climb upward and never fall down, one more each birthday with candles and crown.
What am I?

67.

I heal every wound though I never am seen, I race when you're joyful and crawl in between.
What am I?

54.

I answer you back though I have no tongue, I repeat your last word till the canyon is done.
What am I?

56.

I'm hungry forever, I always must be fed, but give me a drink of water and I drop down dead. What am I?

58.

It belongs to just you but you use it the least,
others call it out loud at a game or a feast.
What is it?

60.

I've twenty-six soldiers all standing in line, rearrange them at will and the words become mine. What am I?

62.

I vanish the instant you speak out my name, I fill a whole room though I have no frame.
What am I?

64.

The more you remove me, the larger I grow, dig in the garden and find me below. What am I?

66.

The moment I'm shared I no longer stay true,
tell one extra person and I'm lost to you.
What am I?

68.

I start off your evening and finish your time,
I'm found in forever and end every rhyme.
What am I?

69.

I travel from ear to ear soft and light, I tell you a secret without any might. What am I?

71.

I pound in your chest without any hands, I race when you run and I calm when you stand. What am I?

73.

I always point north though I walk with no feet, I guide the lost sailor through fog and through sleet. What am I?

75.

You hurl me away with a flick and a fling, yet back to your hand I return on the wing. What am I?

77.

I crack like a whip in a flash of white light, I split the dark sky on a stormy wet night.
What am I?

79.

Give me a swing and I'll sing out so well, I ring in the new year, a chime you can tell.
What am I?

70.

I visit at night when you're deep in your rest, I fade by the morning, a strange little guest.
What am I?

72.

I plunge to the deep so the ship will not roam, I grip the seafloor and I hold the boat home. What am I?

74.

I pull without hands and I cling without glue, iron and steel are the friends I pursue. What am I?

76.

I rumble and grumble and roll through the sky, I follow the flash as the storm passes by.
What am I?

78.

I stand up so tall but I shrink as I glow, I weep waxy tears with each puff that you blow. What am I?

Answer Key

Rhyming Riddles, from brainpuzzles.games

1. A mouse.
2. A clock.
3. A kite.
4. A banana.
5. A watermelon.
6. A car.
7. A tree.
8. The moon.
9. Rain.
10. Snow.
11. A bee.
12. A backpack.
13. An elephant.
14. A match.
15. An umbrella.
16. A river.
17. A piano.
18. A well.
19. A mirror.
20. A pencil.
21. Socks.
22. A comb.
23. A snail.
24. A traffic light.
25. A tomato.
26. A kangaroo.
27. A refrigerator.
28. Stars.
29. A lion.
30. Your toes.
31. The stairs.
32. A telephone.
33. Honey.
34. A frog.

35. An egg.
36. A flag.
37. A tree trunk.
38. sun. It rhymes with "begun" and lights the day. The sun.
39. cloud. Fluffy, white, drifting in the sky: a cloud.
40. table. Four legs, holds dinner, never moves. A table.
41. weather. It's a bat, and bats hang upside down in any weather.
42. gone. Ice cream waits for no one. It'll be gone.
43. Your breath
44. An onion
45. A book
46. Your shadow
47. True. Poem riddles are one of the oldest riddle forms. Old English monks wrote whole books of them.
48. False. It's a near rhyme, not a perfect one. Poets have argued about it forever, and "orange" still has no perfect rhyme.
49. A goat in a boat (goat rhymes with boat).
50. Snail mail (snail rhymes with mail).
51. A spoon.
52. A ladder.
53. A cow.
54. An echo.
55. The letter M.
56. Fire.
57. Tomorrow.
58. Your name.
59. A promise.
60. The alphabet.
61. A postage stamp.
62. Silence.
63. Footsteps.
64. A hole.
65. Your age.
66. A secret.
67. Time.
68. The letter E.
69. A whisper.

- 70. A dream.
- 71. A heartbeat.
- 72. An anchor.
- 73. A compass.
- 74. A magnet.
- 75. A boomerang.
- 76. Thunder.
- 77. Lightning.
- 78. A candle.
- 79. A bell.